

| Announced storage capacity developments |                                              |                   |                      |                |          |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|-------------------|----------------------|----------------|----------|
| Country                                 | Terminal                                     | Vopak's ownership | Products             | Capacity (cbm) | Expected |
| Existing terminals               |                                              |                   |                      |                |          |
| Netherlands                             | Rotterdam - Botlek                           | 100%              | Chemicals            | 15,000         | Q3 2021  |
| United States                           | Houston - Deer Park                          | 100%              | Chemicals            | 33,000         | Q3 2021  |
| Australia                               | Sydney                                       | 100%              | Oil products         | 105,000        | Q3 2021  |
| Belgium                                 | Antwerp - Linkeroever                        | 100%              | Chemicals            | 42,500         | Q3 2021  |
| Mexico                                  | Altamira                                     | 100%              | Chemicals            | 40,000         | Q4 2021  |
| China                                   | Shanghai - Caojing Terminal                  | 50%               | Industrial Terminal  | 65,000         | Q2 2022  |
| Netherlands                             | Vlaardingen                                  | 100%              | Renewable feedstocks | 64,000         | Q4 2022  |
| Brazil                                  | Alemoa                                       | 100%              | Chemicals            | 20,000         | Q1 2024  |
| Acquisitions                     |                                              |                   |                      |                |          |
| India                                   | Kandla, Pipavav, Mangalore, Kochi and Haldia | 49%               | LPG & Chemicals      | 738,000        | Q1 2022  |
| New terminals                    |                                              |                   |                      |                |          |
| United States                           | Vopak Moda Houston                           | 50%               | Chemical gases       | 44,000         | Q3 2021  |
| United States                           | Corpus Christi                               | 100%              | Industrial Terminal  | 130,000        | Q3 2021  |