

Nelson Mandela School

Hamburg, Germany

Project team

Elke Spahn

Project goal

To help children with their professional orientation in an international environment.

Program

The Vopak Dupeg Terminal will start a long-term partnership with the Nelson Mandela school in Hamburg, a school attended by 1,100 children from various cultural backgrounds, to guide pupils for professional orientation in an international environment.

Calendar

The preparations for the project have started since January 2016 and activities will start in November this year.

