

Project X4Change

Santos, Brazil

Project team

Gabrielle Oliveira and Arianne Gomes.

Project goal

To enhance the second language capabilities of 12 to 24 years old students.

Program

Foreign exchange students in Brazil have been recruited to teach a foreign language, either English or Spanish, and professional competencies to youth living near the Alemoa terminal. Together with AIESEC Santos, a youth-led organization that provides young people with leadership development and volunteer exchange experiences across the globe, Vopak Alemoa is reaching out to 50 youngsters.

Project X4Change

Santos, Brazil

What has been realized so far

Language classes have started on 15 February 2016, with English classes in the morning and Spanish classes in the afternoon. Until now almost 50 youngsters have been reached. They participate in classes with different teachers, who are exchange students from around the world, including: Russians, Colombians, Mexicans and Germans. After two months, a 16 years old girl scored best in Spanish classes and was awarded with an Excel course.

Calendar

The project has started in February 2016 and will take place throughout the year.

